FOR SALE CHEAP.—A second hand horizontal boiler.

Brothers.
—Polo tonight—15 cents.

—Odd Fellows social at Odd Fellows hall.

—Brotherhood polo team at the rink this evening.

—Last night of the Webber comedy company.

—The "Phoenix" at the opera house this evening.

—Extensive display of holiday goods at the New York Saving Store.

—Italian Salad Oil, Olives, Capers and choice Pickles at Boston Bakery.

—Misses May Colvin and Belle Wads. worth went to Milwaukee this morning for a short visit.

—The party at Charlie Williams' last night was attended by quite a number of Janesville young people.

—President Chapin, of Beloit college, will occupy the pulpit at the Congregational church to-morrow.

—A dispatch from Manitowish to Mr. Smith this morning, says that while President Luling is very weak, he is gradually gaining.

—The game of polo this evening, at the rink will commence at 8:35, sharp, to allow the club to return home on the 9:45 train for Brodhead.

—The fraternal polo game for the championship of the state will be played here Tuesday, Dec. 22d, between the Milwaukee and Janesville.

—The Rev. H. S. Huntley, D. D., has been among Wisconsin friends a few days recently, called from Washington by the death of a friend in Kansas.

—R. J. Greenman, of Milton, formerly president of the Rock County board of supervisors, paid his old friends at the court house a visit this morning.

—The afternoon meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be extended to-morrow, to afford an opportunity for the members to attend the revival meetings of Mr. Harrison.

—Mr. Chas. W. Storey, of Chicago, arrived in the city last evening for the purpose of attending to some private business, returning on the train this afternoon.

—Misses Maud and Mary Webb, of Whitewater, have been paying a very pleasant visit to their cousin, Miss Lizzie Cady, of the fourth ward, for a short time past and returned home this morning.

—This afternoon Judge Bennett attended to considerable unimportant business in the circuit court chambers. Beside that, the divorce case of Marion Egan, of Center, against Vorhees Ragan of Nebraska, was brought up and a decree granted.

—We expect to witness a good game of polo to-night between Brodhead and Janesville and we know of no other way of getting so much fun for so little money. It is also worth ten times the price of admission to see Capt. Sperry manipulate the ball. He is acknowledged to be the best individual polo player in the state league.

—The rink management have engaged the great Elliott's family, the greatest bicyclists and unicyclists in the world for five exhibitions, evenings of December 31st, January 1st and 2d, and evenings January 1st and 2d. There are six of them and they give one of the finest exhibitions ever witnessed. The Elliotts were Barnum's best attraction for the season of 1894 and no doubt will draw big houses.

—Among the many beautiful styles of ladies' slippers in the show cases at the shoe store of C. Miner, Main street, is a pair of "Swiss" slippers, sent to Mr. Miner by Editor Booth, of the Monroe Sentinel, who states that the slippers were made in Green county. These "Swiss" slippers are made of cloth, partly covered with fine braided straw or grass, and are well cut and take a look at the stock and Miner will tell you all about them.

Special prices for Christmas parties, churches, societies, etc., in lots of five pounds and over.

—Theaters goers will remember that with the performance of this evening, the engagement of the Webber comedy company closes in this city. The "Phoenix" the patronage bestowed upon this company during the past week has not been that which the company merits, and we sincerely hope the Rogers house will be crowded this evening. The prize essay chair will be awarded the lucky ticket holder at the close of the play.

—At two o'clock this afternoon the funeral of the late Mr. Charles Johnson was held in Tallman's block on the corner of Milwaukee and River streets. The deceased was highly esteemed by all who knew him and many sorrowing friends listened to the sad services. The Rev. J. H. Schier, pastor of the German Lutheran church, officiated, and his words though simple were well chosen, proving a balm to the wounded hearts of the listeners. The remains were taken to Oak Hill cemetery for interment, accompanied by a large number of mourners.

—Plush goods, including toilet sets, mirrors, odor cases, whisk broom holders, albums etc. Willow ware, dolls, toys etc. are a few lines represented. These with our immense stock of silk and linen handkerchiefs and mufflers, mitts, gloves, hoods, etc., renders our store the grand center of attraction during the holiday shopping season. We offer a premium with each purchase of one dollar or upwards a chance on a magnificent pool attained in full bridal costume. Everybody invited.

N. Y. S. S.
—Everyone is now thinking up the good resolutions which they will make next year and it would be a good plan for each person to make a record of his resolutions. A diary properly kept is one of the best reminders that can be had and is valuable always. This is generally admitted and the next question is where to get a good one. F. S. Winslow & Co. have made ample provision for all needs in this line and are prepared to show any variety desired. Besides

REV. THOMAS HARRISON.

Sketch of the Career of the "Boy Preacher."

His Life and Labor—When and How he was Converted—His Success.

We present to our readers this afternoon a portrait engraved from a photograph of the Rev. Thomas Harrison, the "Boy Preacher," whose revival labors are now in progress at the Court Street M. E. church. The following sketch of his life will be of interest to our readers:

Mr. Harrison is a slightly built, nervous man, about 5 feet 6 inches in height with a perfectly hairless face. He is, like most of the evangelists, of English descent. His father, Richard Harrison, was a President of Nova Scotia. The evangelist was born on Christmas day, 1854. He dates his conversion from the death of his younger brother in 1869, which event created a great impression on his mind. At that time he was a clerk in a store, but by the advice of a Methodist minister he at once commenced a course of training for the ministry, at Wilbraham academy, and after studying a short time he commenced to preach in the churches in the neighborhood. While still a student, 17 years old, he was licensed to preach by the Methodist Episcopal church. He was afterwards received into the Brooklyn Lyceum, under the care of Dr. Talmage. It is probable that he acquired many eccentricities of manner from that gentleman. Since that time he has held revivals at churches all over the country from Boston to California. At Denver Colorado, last year he held meetings in a skating rink holding from 3,500 to 4,000 people, and was assisted in the labor by two bishops of the Methodist church.

The most successful field that the boy preacher has harvested in is Dr. Talmage's Tabernacle, Brooklyn. This revival was unprecedented in the history of the church. The spacious structure was crowded nightly for nine weeks without any abatement whatever. Twelve hundred conversions were the fruits of the harvest. Many of these were persons belonging to other cities, and some have united with other churches in New York. One night, when the question was raised in the Tabernacle, "What shall we do?" Dr. Talmage put the question and said: "I ask all those whose common sense tells them it is better to go on for two or three evenings longer, to manifest their desire by rising." All of the 5,000 arose. Dr. Talmage, a Presbyterian minister, then announced the continuance of the meetings by Mr. Harrison, a Methodist revivalist, and said very distinctly in a determined manner, "I wish, as a part of our approbation of the valuable services rendered by our brother, that we all express our heartfelt and unqualified approval of the way in which he works. His services certainly eclipse the ways of all other evangelists that the church has ever seen."

Mr. Harrison claims to have witnessed over 20,000 souls converted since he was licensed to preach. He modestly avers that the success which has attended his labors is not due to any ability he possesses in himself, nor is it the result of any oratorical power of which he is master. It is simply and solely the work of the Holy Spirit which God has vouchsafed to bestow in answer to earnest prayer, and on His divine power the young evangelist relies in a spirit of simple dependence for a continued blessing in his future efforts.

To Whom It May Concern.
All persons are warned against pur chasing a certain promissory note dated Nov. 24, 1893, amount $100, interest at 7 per cent, payable to Walter Kenyon, or order, signed by Geo. Thompson and Mrs. E. P. Thompson. The above note was lost June 1894.

Charles Meekins' Fall.
Mr. Charles Meekins, German on engine 486, Chicago & Northwestern road, running between this city and Fond du Lac, met with a very serious accident at Watertown last night at eight o'clock. Mr. Meekins was in the act of pulling down the "spout" for the purpose of filling the engine tank with water, when he slipped and fell to the ground, striking his head against the iron rail, depressing the skull on the back part of the right side. He was taken to the Junction house, and later in the night Dr. Henry Palmer was sent for, and basted to attend the injured man. Dr. Palmer reports that when he left for home to-day Mr. Meekins was still unconscious, but showed favorable symptoms of recovery.

Mr. Meekins made his home with Messrs. Zienow & Blunk, West Milwaukee street and has many personal friends in this city who sincerely hope for his speedy recovery.

Fred C. McLean and Harry Watson went to Watertown at an early hour this morning to assist in caring for the unfortunate man.

THE CONDITIONS.

Of Salvation from Sin, as Defined by Mr. Harrison, at the Revival Meeting Last Night.

Court Street church was crowded last evening, with the largest audience which has assembled since the revival meetings commenced. Many new faces were noticed, and much curiosity manifested. The text of the evening was selected from the book of Chronicles, and before it was commenced, Mr. Harrison gave a vivid description of its character, and deduced it as peculiar in that it contained the conditions of salvation. The first word of the text was "If" and the first half of the passage of scripture was full of sunlight and hope, while the last half was filled with despair and was darker than the darkest midnight.

"If thou seek the Lord with all thy heart, He will be found of thee, but if thou seek Him not, he will cast thee off forever." The only condition of Salvation is seeking God with all the heart. For half an hour this truth was applied with great earnestness and produced a thoughtful, serious feeling all through the vast audience, people who were attracted to the meeting from curiosity, remained to think candidly of the great problem of the mysterious life beyond. When the invitation came for every christian in the house to rise and spend a moment in silent prayer, nearly half the audience complied with the request, and during this impressive service, in response to an invitation for any present who desired the prayers of christian people, to rise, here and there all over the house were noticed those who expressed a willingness to seek God. The altar was soon filled with earnest seekers and an hour spent in prayer and sacred song, resulted in bringing hope and light to many burdened hearts.

The growing interest in the meetings indicates that thought is being directed into channels heretofore neglected, and leading out toward human destiny, beyond the bounds of time.

The meeting of last evening although largely attended differed in some respects from the Thursday night service. The same feeling of solemnity prevailed, but more restraint was apparent, produced, perhaps, by the standard of christian living, and the necessity of knowing the exact date of conversion as defined by the speaker. Mr. Harrison is confident, however, that a great work will yet be accomplished in Janesville, and that the city is about to be visited with a gracious outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Meetings this afternoon and evening as usual. The first service to-morrow will occur at a quarter before ten in the morning and continue through the day and evening.

Invalds who are waning away from a want of proper action of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels, will find Dr. Reich's Sarsaparilla a most valuable remedy. It is a powerful purgative, a constitutional tonic and a fountain of vitality and vigor, as refreshing and exhilarating as a cool, gushing spring of water to the parched and fainting traveler in the desert. Price $1.50. Sold by Prentice & Evenson.

Resignation of a Methodist Pastor.
Special Dispatch to the Sentinel.

Fond du Lac, Dec. 18.—The Rev. John Pavle has resigned as pastor of the Division Street M. E. church in this city, and his resignation has been accepted, to take effect on Sunday evening. He will probably be called to the pulpit of the Congregational church at Appleton.

Rev. John Pavle, of Fond du Lac, will be recognized as the twin brother of the Rev. Henry Faville, pastor of the Algoma Street M. E. church, of Oshkosh. If the above report is true, the Division street church, of Fond du Lac lost an able pastor and unless the matter was beyond their control, are responsible for permitting such a sacrifice to Methodism.

"The moon of Mahomet arose, and it shall set," says Shalsh, "but if you will set a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in some handy place you will have a quick cure for cough, croup and colds. The eighth wonder of the world—A bearded man limping with rheumatism who has never tasted of Salvation Oil. Price 25 cents a bottle.
